

OLYMPIC SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Olympic Logging Conference Foundation, 501 (c) (3) 81-4466161, is organized exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes including the making of distributions to persons seeking advanced education or organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the IRS code.

Scholarship awards may be used for tuition, books and/or room and board for students attending any college, university or vocational/technical school. A minimum $500.00 shall be awarded annually and will be paid directly to the recipient's post-secondary institution.

OLYMPIC Criteria

- Current OLC member, child/grandchild of past OLC chair or child of current OLC member. Current OLC member is defined by paid registration membership within the past 5 years. First year attendees are not eligible.
- Pursuing post-secondary education.
- Annual application is required. Application must be complete with all supporting documents combined as a single PDF document and submitted electronically. Incomplete and/or do not qualify applicants, will be notified by April 15.
- Preference may be given to forestry related fields but not exclusively awarded to such candidates.
- Deadline: Applications must be emailed to scholarship@olcnw.com by April 1 to be considered for award distribution within the upcoming school year. Confirmation of receipt will be emailed.

I hereby make application for a scholarship under the terms and conditions of an educational scholarship from the Olympic Logging Conference Foundation.
