

Dear Conference Benefactor,

This year's Olympic Logging Conference is approaching, and we are looking for donors like you to support the exciting program we have planned. Our conference title this year is "Families in the Forest", and Richard Louv will share his work on connecting families with nature and the outdoors. The program will offer additional insight and discussion on how important our connection to the outdoors is to the forest products industry in this technological world.

The success of the Olympic Logging Conference is attributed to the tremendous support we receive from our sponsors, and we greatly appreciate it. Sponsor generosity allows us to invite superior speakers, schedule lively entertainment, and provide quality meals as part of our conference package. Participants enjoy learning about current topics relevant to the timber industry while networking with others in the business.

As we work to put on another outstanding conference, your support is vital to our success. Any level of support is greatly appreciated. Please fill out the attached pledge form and return it by March 15, 2018 to ensure your company receives the acknowledgement it deserves. Our sponsors receive visual and printed recognition during the conference.

We appreciate your support of the 73rd Olympic Logging Conference and hope you will join us at the beautiful Fairmont Empress Hotel in Victoria, B.C., April 25th – April 27th, 2018.

Sincerely,

Roger Smith, Olympic Logging Conference Financial Support Chairman
